

I am writing to ask the commission to consider the most powerful and secure telecommunications entity prior to the 1985 breakup which the U.S. congress, in all their wisdom, sought and succeeded to dissolve. Consider the number and that fact that startups have and continue to do to our country and our economy. Help the Baby Bells in their resolve to provide a future, built on a successful history of communications service to America. Think about it ...